

I'm Fine

Hazel English

I, I can't deny, i'm paralysed from the inside
Everyday i wake to feel the same, Ohh Ohhh Ohh
And every time you ask me how i'm feeling
I just smile and tell you that i'm fine, Ohh Ohhh OhhI, I don't know why I'm terrified of everything
Just to call the doctor seems daunting, Ohh Ohhh Ohh
For most of my life i felt a sharp uncertainty
Now it's just become a part of me, Ohh Ohhh OhhI can't deny, i'm paralysed from the inside
Everyday i wake to feel the same, Ohh Ohhh Ohh
And every time you ask me how i'm feeling
I just smile and tell you that i'm fine, Ohh Ohhh Ohh
It's hard to stay true, to myself and to you
I can't measure up to, this girl you thought you knew
This aching in my heart, is tearing me apart
But darling all your love
Is somehow not enough
