Everything's Right (Producer's Commentary)

Matt Wertz

Windows down as the night blows in
Tap the beat on the wheel as the tires spin
Until we're there crank the radio
We'll join in with the songs we knowHey, everything's right, said everything's right tonight
Hey, everything's right, said everything's right tonightSmiles light up as we walk in Old conversations begin again
Nostalgia's thick as the August air
It takes us back to a time when we didn't care, we didn't careHey, everything's right, said everything's right tonight
Hey, everything's right, said everything's right tonightHey, everything's right, said everything's right tonight
Hey, everything's right, said everything's right tonight
