

Try So Hard

Lucas Carpenter

Not that this is any of my business
Not that you asked for my opinion
But if you're shakin your ass in an Anthropologie skirt
Getting no reaction
Then I think it's bout time you took your man's sexuality
Into question
Cause if you dangle a $100 bill in front of a beggar
He's gunna take it and run, take it and run, take it and run
And it's the same thing
With guys of any age
So why's he in the corner arms folded
Testosterone bloated
Ya shouldnt have to try so hard (repeat)
Not that this is any of my business
Not that you asked for my opinion
But now you're wrapping your studded belt around
Every scene boy in your crowd
Charging with trends, targeting boyfriends
A Cultural chameleon
You don't see it now, flipped upside down
Cause if you dangle a $100 bill in front of a beggar
He's gonna take it and run, take it and run, take it and run
And it's the same thing with boys of any age
So why's he in the corner arms folded
Ya shouldnt have to try so hard (repeat)
(you know your man's a damn fool)
(cause he's got the poster child for beautiful)
