

Holy Water

Ro James

So I gave my cost a game
I'm running to the city
Tryna find a reason
I'm tryna be a stronger man
Some type of lover
Say I paid my way to win
I'm running from the city
'Cause I've found my reason
Tryna be a better man
Or some type of lover
Eh, eeh, eh And when the rain gets to falling
It's coming down on me
Feels like the weight of the world
Was blind, but now I see that it's just holy water
It reminds me not to lose my soul, ooh, oh Who said blue skies and the memory of you
Making me feel special
No one makes me feel like you do
And at the same time, the moon lets me know that you know this
But part of me feels like, for you
I would give my soul, just to make you feel good, baby
Never leave you left alone, eh
Say I paid my way to win
I'm running from the city
'Cause I've found my reason That's when the rain gets to falling
It's coming down on me
Feels like the weight of the world
Was blind, but now I see that it's just holy water
It reminds me not to lose my soul, ooh, oh
