Fantasy

Groundbreaking

You put something in my mind
Not sure how you did it or even why
One look at you and I'm not myself
You're something I have never feltTake it back I can't keep away
To your perfect figure and your pretty face
Don't even know you
Don't know your name
But I guess that's the gameOh no
Here we go
Another day your body steals the show
I give in
Hands up high
I know you came down from the sky
Love the way you turn me on
You'll never hear me asking whyI feel fine
You're divineOne touch you jumpstart my heart
I wanna know just what you are
Get a little closer now
Gotta get to know you
How hard it has to be
To have them all at your feet
You're the girl they see
The one in their dreams
But you're gonna be my queen
How hard it has to beIt's taking over now
It's getting hot inside
This club is getting loud tonight
She's dancing fine and just like before
She's so divine gotta give her more
One, two, three, four
Turn up the bass
And get off the floorLights and noise distort my brain
I couldn't feel just about anything
All the ringing in my ears
Washes out all of the fears
I looked it dead in the eye
And said goodbye as I walked by
Lost my mind
All I saw was lightTaking over now

Getting cold inside
My brain is screaming loud tonight
I'm doing fine but not like before
I'm out of time gotta find me more
One, Two, Three, Four
Turn up the bass and get off the floor[You put something in my mind]
[Not sure how you did it or even why]
[One look at you and I'm not myself]
[You're something I have never felt][Take it back I can't keep away]
[To your perfect figure and your pretty face]
[Don't even know you]
[Don't know your name]
[But I guess that's the game][Repeat x3]
