Wolf

Jennie Abrahamson

You move lke noone else I can Spot you in the dark where you won't let nobody in and you work out of the shades save your time, save your name oh who will let you win
You're a wolf
I can't read you, I can't read you Got all the bits and pieces but we're missing a part-I can't read you, Can't read you
Looking For your blood and I look For your heart- I can't read you can't read you
You've crossed so many lines but you always return to the place you know you're safe and close yourself in silence a lock around your heart oh will you let me in
You're a wolf
I can't read you, I can't read you
Got all the bits and pieces but we're
missing a part-I can't read you, cant
read you
I could let the hunters hunt you down put you down and move you
I could let the hunters hunt you down but I won't You can't help your hunting around you have no way but you'll always be found
You're a wolf
A wolf
