Man In The Street

Joe Jackson

I'm not a happy guy
But I'm not always sad
And I'm no millionaire
But I don't do so badBut no matter who you think you are There's always someone with a different view
There's always someone thinks he's got a right
To say what's good for youSo how do you know
That the man in the street don't care
And why don't you care
When the man in the street don't knowAnyway
I'm not a clever guy
But I'm sure not that dumb
Don't have the inside newsBut I know what goes on
And if you put your faith in God above
Or if you watch the skies for Superman
There's always times when you can see the answersSlip right through their hands
So how do you know
That the man in the street don't care
And why don't you careWhen the man in the street don't know
Anyway
So no matter who they think they are
As they tell you who to fight or how to danceWhy don't you give yourself a break
And give us all a chance
'Cause how do you know
That the man in the street don't careAnd why don't you care
When the man in the street don't know

Songwriters
JACKSONPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/