

In Disarray

Softengine

She offered a bounty wealth all inclusive forever more. But it's not my time. I turned down a lifetime House on a prime site
I could have it all Cause I will find my way to walk astray
I don't need no more days
to say that I wanna stay Cause I belong here From all these trees that fall beneath my feet I have found my place
Cause I belong here,
I belong here In Disarray Have you seen The Other Side?
Beautiful serenity?
Can't afford to lose the fight falling to reality Have you seen The Other Side?
Beautiful serenity?
I just have to be alive falling to reality Cause I will find my way to walk astray
I don't need no more days
to say that I wanna stay Cause I belong here From all these trees that fall
beneath my feet I have found my place
Cause I belong here,
I belong here In Disarray
In Disarray (In Disarray!)
