Tree

The Fortunes

Ever see the tree, ever feel yourself Wrapped around the wind Let go of your desire Desire will suffer in the send suffer the will, will of the child the child will born on our death
Child will be born on our death
Oh let the child be born
and be brought to the sun
As desire will come and suffer the will, will will of the child (repeat 2 Times) Everything is so beautiful Everything is so simple now Colors weave into symbols of life symbols of life they weave into the wind Oh weary child rest your head Very soon the colors come alive

And the child will be born born on our death
child will be born on our death
and be brought to the sun
As the symbols of life weave into the wind (Repeat 1 time) Because everything is simple now
Nothing has ever changed
The colors all weave with life
Let the weary child be born
Because everything is simple now
Nothing has ever changed
The colors all weave with life
as we move into the wind
