Waiting for the Rain

Jesse Clegg

i can feel it, coming over me you say theres no one else to blame and the last time, was only weeks ago since me and you always sense the same take it back to where we used to be calling out your name, calling out your name placed between the deaths we never see every days the same, waiting for the rain (Chorus)
Waiting for the rain, Waiting for the rain what you say to me my darling hold up Iâ€™m always waiting for the rain
waiting for the rain, waiting for the rain
waiting for the rain

I believed you, all those years ago you said that we were thick as thieves yeh we hold up, and take our final bow i canâ€™t tell if you still believe lets take it back to where we used to be calling out your name, calling out your name
placed between the deaths we never see
every days the same, waiting for the rain
(Chorus)
Waiting for the rain, Waiting for the rain
what you say to me my darling hold up Iâ€™m always waiting for the rain
waiting for the rain, waiting for the rain Waiting of the rain and Iâ€™m open for something to change calling out your name cause i wait for you, i wait for you to start again

(Chorus)
Waiting for the rain, Waiting for the rain
what you say to me my darling hold up Iâ€™m always waiting for the rain
waiting for the rain, waiting for the rain

Waiting for the rain

Lets take it back to where we used to be
waiting for the rain, waiting for the rain placed between the deaths we used to see waiting for the rain, waiting for the rain
