The Distance From Her to There

Lambchop

So shy tonight I'm told you were, I'm in the thick of it
I've been a dick with it, you're just not used to itAm I'm alright well, as you were there's no use for this
It's not a theater kiss more like a railway pissThe lights outside tonight are far from home
And I'm out drinkin' in the yard
And I fell sadder for the sad old bone
No, it's not far, really babe, it's just not that farAnd by the light and so you were
It's such a cleaner wish
A much softer fist a much weaker wrist
And by tonight you'll wait for her
So little hell to pay it just works out that way
On almost any day
