

Whatever Happened to Your Smile

Poco

You said you'd walk up to me any day

You'd come laughing all the while

You'd sit by me and we'd talk about today

Whatever happened to your smile
Keeping your word you've come to me like a stray

Now I've been witness to a trial

And I feel as though it was only yesterday

Whatever happened to your smile
Whatever happened to your smile

The look upon your face, the sparkle in your eyes

The way you'd laugh but for a while

Whatever happened to your smile

Whatever happened to your smile
I do believe that you will not allow

Yourself to feel like a child

And I know it's hard to live for the here and now

But, whatever happened to your smile
Now that you've come I guess you'll be on your way

And you'll be travelin' many a mile

But when you're back I hope that I won't have to say

Whatever happened to your smile
Whatever happened to your smile

The look upon your face, the sparkle in your eyes

The way you'd laugh but for a while
