

Coming Back to You

Dave Moore

This morning brought thoughts of joy
That I made it through the night
This month's been hard when comes to
Doing what is right
It's been a fight to be on my own
To believe in what I know
Oh God to live in your light
Cause after all I've been through
I'm forced to seek you
And I lift my voice, I've made my choice
That I'm coming back to you
After all that I've been through
I seek you
Sometimes I fall into what I fear is wrong
But your grace sustains me
I know you were there all along
You guide my intuition
As I'm falling into the deep
This ocean air keeps blowing
Find is sweeps me off my feet
