Avalon

Nocturnal Rites

In the void, long before time
The entity broke into fire
The elements of life once came aliveGenesis, womb of the world
God of time, bringer of all
Spring out of the dark, behold the lightStand tall in a land of flames
Gods at war, battle forevermoreRise, Avalon
From the veil of mystery
The birth of time will soon begin
for all to seeRise, Avalon
While tomorrow fades away
Welcome to the poisoned land
As all towers fallBrave New World rise to the sky
The wonders of man crumble and fall
Man appointing gods, unfold our fearStand tall in a land of flames
Gods at war, battle forevermoreRise, Avalon
From the veil of mystery
The birth of time will soon begin
For all to seeRise, Avalon
While tomorrow fades away
Welcome to the poisoned land
As all towers fallRise, Avalon
From the veil of mystery
The birth of time will soon begin
For all to seeRise, Avalon
While tomorrow fades away
Welcome to the poisoned land
As all towers fallRise, Avalon
From the veil of mystery
The birth of time will soon begin
For all to seeRise, Avalon
While tomorrow fades away
Welcome to the poisoned land
As all towers fall
