Skeleton Hands

How can i hold you?
As the darkness calls
What kind of evil keeps you?
You stand before the fall

I showed you truth
I've opened your eyes
You cannot eat
For you will die

Don't tear this soul to pieces
Don't walk away from eden
The devil's tempted your heart
This fruit has torn us apart

I tried to save you
But you took from the tree
Tell me, are you happy?
What have you done to me?

You are my love
The bone of my side
Remember me
When he says goodbye

Don't tear this soul to pieces
Don't walk away from eden
The devil's tempted your heart
This fruit has torn us apart

Don't walk away

Don't walk away
