Afterlife

Forever Slave

No more blame, if everyday promises died again.
No more prays,if everyday our game's the same.
I need your warm close to me
I wanna dream to night as well Should we have chosen, once again, another final?
You need my hand close to you.
You wanna listen my silence again.
Should we have chosen our losing dreams or another fantasy?Oh oh ooh ooh oh oh Waiting the time of our end.Don't miss my words, if daylight is getting close.
Don't take my love, if everyday you must goDon't miss the voice
We will be close Don't be ashamed or we will be lost
