Crashin'

Jack's Mannequin

I wanna hear some music
Now that they're driving us all underground
Not the radio music or their satellite singing this
In this town, in this town
I wanna hear some music
And with the rock stars all flicker and fade
Power radio music
I'm a ghost over ground on, on parade
And even if your voice comes back again
Maybe they'll be no one listening
And even if I find the strength to stand
It doesn't mean I won't go missing
And the world will come crashing
I wanna hear some music
I have been waiting down here for so long
Trying to write this big music
With your breath on my face
But now, but now you're gone
And even if your voice comes back again
Maybe they'll be no one listening
And even if I find the strength to stand
It doesn't mean I won't go missing
And the world will come crashing
And the whole world comes down, downwards
And all the water on this broken town
The freeway's just like veins without a heart
And the world just comes crashing
And the whole world comes crashing
And the whole world comes
And even if your voice comes back again
Maybe they'll be no one listening
And even if I find the strength to stand
It doesn't mean I won't go on
And even if your voice comes back again
Maybe they'll be no one listening
And even if you find the strength to stand
It doesn't mean you won't go missing
And the world will come crashing
And the words will come crashing

And the music comes crashing
Down on me, down on me
And the words will come crashing
And the words will come crashing
Down on me, so down on me
Down on me
