Happy Loving Couples

Joe Jackson

I've just been to see my best friend
He's found another girl
Says she's just about the best thing
In the whole damn worldAnd he says, "Can't you see what the little lady's done for me"
Says it like he thinks I'm blind
But the things that you see
Ain't necessarily the things you can findHappy loving couples make it look so easy
Happy loving couples always talk so kind
Till the time that I can do my dancing with a partner
Those happy couples ain't no friends of minePeople say I'm too damn fussy
When it comes to girls
Happy couples say
I must live in a lonely worldWanna be, wanna really be What my friends pretend to be
Be it in my own good time
Being kind to myself
Till I become one of two of a kindBut those happy loving couples make it look so easy
Happy loving couples always talk so kind
Till the time that I can do my dancing with a partner
Those happy couples ain't no friends of mineYou ain't no friends of mine
You ain't no friends of mineYou know what I mean happy loving couples
In matching [Incomprehensible] polo-neck sweaters
Reading 'Ideal Homes' magazine, yeahWanna be, wanna really be What my friends pretends to be
Be it in my own good time
Being kind to myself
Till I become one of two of a kindBut those happy loving couples make it look so easy
Happy loving couples always talk so kind
Until the time that I can do my dancing with a partner
Those happy couples ain't no friends of mineYou ain't no friends of mine
You ain't no friends of mine
You ain't no friends of mineYou ain't no friends of mine
You ain't no friends of mine
You ain't no friends of mineRight, that's enough
