

Sittin' On the Boat Dock

Joe Bonamassa

Sittin on the boat dock
Banging on my bottle
Sippin on it all day long Well I'm sittin on the boat dock
Banging on my bottle
Banging on it all day
Watching the tide
Waiting for you to come home Oh, the sun is sinking slowly out of sight
Now the sun baby is sinking slowly out of sight
Oh until you come home I'll be sittin here all night The moon is shining from above
Now the moon baby is shining from up above
Oh it's shining on me cause I'm missin the one I love
Oh I see the moon the moon sees me
Please Mr. Moon don't you tell on me
Cause I'm sitting on the boat dock
Banging on my bottle
Waiting for you to come home
Oh I'm sittin right here ever since you've been gone
