

Lost In Your Own Life

Alexa Vega

Dont have to be a wanderer alone
Dont have to be a dog without a bone
Just come to my house, Ill be home
I can hear you And how did you end up lost at sea?
You dont have a boat or live near a beach
But if youre in need of rescuing
I will hear you I want you to know
Youre never alone
Youll always have a place to go
Its on a brighter side Ill color your night
Ill lead you to life
Put hope inside for you to find You dont have to be lost
Lost in your own life
Lost in your own life Dont have to have a heart thats turned to stone
Dont have to be a king without a throne
What does that even mean, do you even know?
'Cause I can hear you I want you to know
Youre never alone
Youll always have a place to go
Its on a brighter side Ill color your night
Ill lead you to life
Put hope inside that you can find You dont have to be lost
Lost in your own life You dont have to live in strife like before
No one uses the word strife anymore
(No, no, no, no, no) Ill color your night
Ill lead you to life
Put hope inside so you can find You dont have to be lost
Lost in your own life
Lost in your own life
La, la, la, la, la
