

Your Love Is Black

Kaskade

Look out to the calm sea
I don't know why
that I
want to cry
when I feel
this high

Nature seems to know me
so many times
shes been below me
and so I sing and we dream as my soul she tries to live seems I lost my way last night but I was reborn by daylight seems I get another chance another chance to dance away now you bring your lovin back but don't you know your love is black and now you're hear pouring in the dark cuz you cant see inside my heart my heart....

my heart....

look out
your love is black
look out
your love is black
look out..
your love...
is black...

close my eyes
and I can breathe
I can feel
what is right
what is true
what is real

seems you lost your way last night and you were back here by daylight now your words are black and cold and your lines are tired and old nature is calming me cuz your love was harmin me and now I shed that coat of arm I wasn't safe there in your arms

look out
your love is black
look out
your love is black
look out..
is black...

(speaking) : lost my way
its true I loved you once its true you were once mine

lost my way

ooooo

lost my way....
lost my way....

cuz I lost my way
I lost my way
I lossstt my wayy..
lost my wayy..
lost my way..
