

Glory

Dermot Kennedy

For all the moments never known
'Cause he stepped off of the tallest sail
For all the love he'd left below
In the waves He made his peace with letting go
Said some things he'd never dared to say
The one the lighthouse left alone
Never saved 'Til a set of eyes had pinned him
Became his version of a kingdom
Now I know they'll never haunt me
When she's singing to me "Glory"
And a hopeful rhythm woke within him
She's singing to me "Glory"
Had some letters written, 'course she's in 'em
She's singing to me "Glory"
Tried to tell her, throat was linen
She's singing to me "Glory"
I was only ever thinking about you, you know
She's singing to me glory They found a letter that he wrote
He said "it's best off if we burn the page"
I wrote it very long ago
In different days I guess I'm tired of talk of hope
I've learned that doves and ravens fly the same (fly the same)
But suddenly she's all I know
An old refrain
A set of eyes had pinned him
Became his version of a kingdom
Now I know they'll never haunt me
When she's singing to me "Glory" And a hopeful rhythm woke within him
She's singing to me "Glory"
Had some letters written, 'course she's in 'em
She's singing to me "Glory"
Tried to tell her, throat was linen
She's singing to me "Glory"
I was only ever thinking about you, you know
She's singing to me "Glory" (Oh)(Glory) I was only ever thinking about you, you know
Singing to me "Glory" A set of eyes had pinned him
Became his version of a kingdom
She's everything the devil can't be
When she's singing to me "Glory" A set of eyes had pinned him

Became his version of a kingdom
She's everything the devil can't be
When she's singing to me "Glory"
"Glory"
"Glory"

She's singing to me "Glory"
Singing to me "Glory"
