Patience

Orange Grove

It's just another laid back track to cut slack to
So don't jump around the crowd too loud someone might Smack you
Taste the bass and come to the kick-drum
We know ya wan more and OG gone give ya some
This one's goin out to all my people in the crowd and
The dreads coolin out with their music up loud
All my homies that been askin me 'man when u gone
Dedicate a track to me? ya neva get back to me'
Yo g i been locked up in my room, writin crazy rhymes
And chillin on the moon, but yo dready i'll be comin
Out soon with a whole album fulla ragamuffin tunes
The way I rip mics and leave mc's in misery
It aint no mystery like some religious history
I'm just an average human being doin his thing
Like club-hoppin, and grocery-shoppin
So let's talk about what's really goin on Aint nothing goin on you're just listenin to a song
Man i'm a chill til I'm gone and i'll be back to chill later
So homie stay strong like a gladiator

Raggamuffin have ya patience
Time soon come we pon ya station
DJ reload ya rotation
OG crew we comin through wit a wicked vibration
Raggamuffin have ya patience
Time soon come we pon ya station
DJ reload ya rotation
OG crew we comin through wit a wicked vibration

Say ruffian, rastaman, West Indian, dem feel de vibration
Caribbean, Antillean, de world of nation gone feel de vibration
Babylon ya betta ease off can't hold down de youth
We much too strong and dem a know dat's de truth
There aint much out there we can't do
So call off security and leff us through
We nah gone run, said mr. screwface man
Ya love fe start trouble and grill beef wit everyone
This irie son, me say ya can't come pully down

Ya musta sick inna ya head like mike tyson
This boy a come up, just like how fly boy say
So listen dj we got a track ya wan play
Leff de charts get burn up, de top 40 packed wit fassy
Time fe change dat wit a new styley

Raggamuffin have ya patience
Time soon come we pon ya station
DJ reload ya rotation
OG crew we comin through wit a wicked vibration
Raggamuffin have ya patience
Time soon come we pon ya station
DJ reload ya rotation
OG crew we comin through wit a wicked vibration
