

This Little Girl

Gary "U.S." Bonds

You got your keys, but where you going?

The third degree just isn't working.

'Cause you walked out without asking me to go,
And if I followed you home, would you be alone?

I checked your phone, 'cause it was beeping

Are you alone? I know you're creepin'

'Cause you walked out without asking me to go,
But if I followed you home, I hope you're alone

Bridge:

I'm three steps from the edge

Whoa-oh

Don't push me over it

Don't you know, don't you know

Chorus:

Every girl is capable of murder if you hurt her
Watch out you, don't push me any further, any further
You're not the only one walkin' 'round with a loaded gun.
This little girl is capable of murder 'cause you hurt her
My hands are clean, not yet a killer
Ain't I your queen? And did you tell her?
'Cause you broke down all my shoulda known betters
And I followed you home, throwing sticks and stones

Bridge:

I'm two steps from the edge

Whoa-oh

Don't push me over it

Don't you know, don't you know

Chorus:

Every girl is capable of murder if you hurt her
Watch out you, don't push me any further, any further
You're not the only one walkin' 'round with a loaded gun
This little girl is capable of murder 'cause you hurt her
Don't you know you should never treat a girl like that?
Got a good alibi, and my bag's all packed
Don't you know you should never treat a girl like that?
'Cause the next one's gonna have the hammer pulled back

Chorus:

Every girl is capable of murder

So watch out you, don't push me any further
But you f*ckin' hurt her
Every girl is capable of murder if you hurt her
Watch out, you don't push me any further, any further
You're not the only one walkin' 'round with a loaded gun
This little girl is capable of murder, hey!
This little girl is capable of murder 'cause you hurt her!
