Sebastian

The Venus In Furs

Radiate simply, the candle is burning so low for me
Generate me limply, I can't seem to place your name, cherie
To rearrange all these thoughts in a moment is suicide
Come to a strange place, we'll talk over old times we never spiedSomebody called me Sebastian
Work out a rhyme, toss me the time, lay me, you're mine
And we all know, oh yeah!Your Persian eye sparkle; your lips, ruby blue don't speak a sound
You, oh so gay, with Parisian demands, you can run-around
And your view of society screws up my mind like you'll never know
Lead me away, come inside, see my mind in kaleidoscopeSomebody called me Sebastian
Love me sublime, mangle my mind, do it in style,
So we all know, oh yeah!You're not gonna run, babe, we only just begun, babe, to compromise
Slagged in a Bowery saloon, love's a story we'll serialise
Pale angel face; green eye-shadow, the glitter is outasite
No courtesan could begin to decipher your beam of lightSomebody called me Sebastian
Dance on my heart, laugh, swoop and dart, la-di-di-da
Now we all know you, yeah!
