

Wildfire

The Mynabirds

Hold your fire
Hold your tongue
Save your breath for
What you love
Ashes to ashes
We're born to rust
But there must be a little iron left
Left in us I'll light a candle
You fan the flame
Kiss in the darkness
Just to chase it all away
I still believe in the choirs in the sky
Singing, "Fire! Fire! Fire! Fire!"
We are a wildfire
We are a wildfire
We are wild wild wild wild
We are a wildfire
We are a wildfire
We are wild wild wild wild
We are a wildfire Into the night
We're burning
Into the night
Into the night Hold your fire
Hold your tongue
Save your breath for
We are a wildfire
We are a wildfire
We are wild wild wild wild
We are a wildfire
We are a wildfire
We are wild wild wild wild
We are a wildfire Into the night
We're burning
Into the night
Into the night
