

Sex, Lies and Homicide

Behind Crimson Eyes

Raped, naked and tortured as you penetrate into sadness.
I'll let you deep inside the border line as I close my eyes to this wicked mind. So drink my wine
and break my bread
I'll be your savior Embrace this new love for new hate.
(I'll be the one who kills, I'll be the one who thrills)
Replace your old faith for new fate.
(I'll be the one who kills, I'll be the one who thrills) Now I forget to scream
My pleasure comes from this twisted scene,
Take, take this face of mine.
There's no need for disguise.
There's no place you can hide,
Too vile for us to find. So drink my wine
and break my bread
I'll be your savior Embrace this new love for new hate.
(I'll be the one who kills, I'll be the one who thrills)
Replace your old faith for new fate.
(I'll be the one who kills, I'll be the one who thrills)
Embrace this new love for new hate.
(I'll be the one who kills, I'll be the one who thrills)
Replace your old faith for new fate.
(I'll be the one who kills, I'll be the one who thrills) Take, take all of me in and I'll fuck you full of sin.
I'll take you to a world of shame
And you'll never be the same. Now that I am your mother and father
I will exploit you anyway I feel like.
I'll be the one who kills
I'll be the one who thrills
I'll be the one who kills
I'll be, I'll be
I'll be the one who kills
I'll be the one who thrills
I'll be the one who kills
I'll be the one!
