

Hollywood

Cute Is What We Aim For

The way we're living makes no sense
Take me back to the age of innocence
I wanna go back then
Take me back to the age of innocence
Back to the age of innocence When clockwork fixed by lights and books
When singers wrote songs instead of hooks
When the value wasn't in the price
When the fight for life was in the civil rights When we could live life through a screen
When everything you knew was as good as it seems
When the only worry was the concept of sin
When did it begin? I wonder if I could
Go back to old Hollywood
When presidents dropped blond bombshells
Instead of creating the perfect hell The way we're living makes no sense
Take me back to the age of innocence
I wanna go back then
Take me back to the age of innocence
Back to the age of innocence When pharmaceuticals were there to make life beautiful
When the way that we were born was more than suitable
When everybody thought that they could make a difference
And you couldn't get your pics within an instance I wonder if I could
Go back to old Hollywood
When presidents dropped blond bombshells
Instead of creating the perfect hell The way we're living makes no sense
Take me back to the age of innocence
I wanna go back then
Take me back to the age of innocence
Back to the age of innocence [Incomprehensible] I wanna get older, don't fight my age
Now take me back to those simpler days
I wonder how it all happened
I wanna get older, don't fight my age
Don't wanna be the page on the scalpel's blade So please tell me, please tell me
What ever happened, happened? I wonder if I could
Go back to old Hollywood
When presidents dropped blond bombshells
Instead of creating their lives into hell The way we're living makes no sense
Take me back, take me back
To the age of innocence
I wanna go back then Take me back, take me back

To the age of innocence
Back to the age of innocence I wanna get older, don't fight my age
Now take me back to those simpler days
I wonder how it all happened
I wanna get older, don't fight my age
Don't wanna be the page on the scalpel's blade Now please tell me, please tell me
What ever happened, happened?
