Human Remains

Drowners

Echoes of words she never spoke
Twirl around his head today
A disco ball rotation
Reflects upon the freckles on her faceI watched her dance across a crowded floor
Holding on tightly to someone she'd met the week before
So when I leave tonight with someone at my side
All the time I make believe it's youWhat I mean to say
In the kindest of ways
Is all the time I'm just dreaming of youI watched her dance across a crowded floor
Holding on tightly to someone she'd met the week before
So when I leave tonight with someone at my side
All the time I make believe it's youDesire doesn't fade, it only gets replaced
And I'm looking for youI watched her dance across
I watched her dance acrossI watched her dance across a crowded floor
Holding on tightly to someone she'd met the week before
So when I leave tonight with someone at my side
All the time I make believe it's you
