

One More Chance

Bodyjar

I can't sleep, 'cause I won't wake up again
I can't read but the writing's on the wall
I lied but I told the truth again
Got so much, I got nothing Now I've lost the moment
Now I've lost all my control
But I've got the reason I should fight
It's trapped inside One more chance to make it up to you
One more chance to make it right
One more chance to make a difference
All the simple things are more than worth the fight I can't move when I should step aside
I can't speak but I've got so much to say
I can't love 'cause I don't feel anything
I can't live but I'm too young to die Now I've lost the moment
Now I've lost all my control
But I've got the reason I should fight
It's trapped inside One more chance to make it up to you
One more chance to make it right
One more chance to make a difference
All the simple things are more than worth the fight I know that it's taking me over slowly
I know but it's better than feeling lonely
A picture on the wall, a picture on the wall
Is better than feeling lonely
