

Chainsaw

Fat Tulips

Look at me with starry eyes
In the second scene the hero dies
Prove you're not invincible
Forget the basic principal
Your carry on can make my day
Experience the hands on way
What do you think you're doing now
It's obvious you don't know how

Cut me, cut me
Cut me with your chainsaw
Cut me, cut me
Cut me with your chainsaw
Why do I still love you
When you broke my heart in two?

Tearing me limb from limb
I'm weakening for your sin
Tiring of your attitude
Not gonna stand here being used
I'm sending you away
Going to find a new game to play
I'm rejoining the human race
But first I'm going to smash your face

Why should I care if we're together?
Why should I care for you at all?
I think I'm leaving you for better things
I think I'm leaving Mr. Small
