The Borderlines

Jeffrey Osborne

Hey, the borderlines
Were closing in on the other side
With her love on my mindI was just a working man
Working overtime in a foreign land
Tryin to make a deal but knowing
Of thin paper wallsI met her in a small cafe
We shared some time over Beaujolais
Within a short span of time
We fell in loveHey, the borderlines
Were closing in on the other side
With her love on my mindWe shared our body love through the night
Though we knew the end was in sight
We never stopped to think
Our love might not beBorderlines
Could keep her love from me
Borderlines
Could say what I can seeBorderlines
Can tell me what can be
Borderlines
They will not control me, noBorderlines
Could keep her heart from me
Borderlines
Could say what I can seeBorderlines
Can tell me what will be
Borderlines
They will not worry me, no
(They wont worry me, they wont worry me)Hey, the borderlines
(Borderlines)
Were closing in on the other side
With her love on my mindSo we devised a working plan
A new disguise to fool any man
Cause thats the only way
That we could be wedAnd once we saw arrangements were made
We knew that we could not then delay
Authorities were hot on our trail
As we got awayBorderlines
Wont keep her love from me
Borderlines
Wont say what I can seeBorderlines

Wont tell me what can be
Borderlines
They will not control me, noBorderlines
Wont keep her heart from me
Borderlines
Wont say what I can seeBorderlines
Wont tell me what will be
Borderlines
They will not worry me, noBorderlines
Wont keep her love from me
Borderlines
Wont say what I can see, noBorderlines
Wont tell me what can be
Borderlines
They will not worry me, no
(They wont worry me, they wont worry me)Hey, the borderlines
(Borderlines)
Were closing in on the other side
With her love on my mindHey, the borderlines
(Borderlines)
Were closing in on the other side
With her love on my mind
