Over the Moon

Babel Fish

So, you're down on your elbows and knees
And now you just go with the flow
You used to be easy to please
But that was a long time ago.But when you enter her room
And when she opens her dream cocoonYou'll be over the moon
You'll be able to fly
You'll be getting there soon
You'll be high as the skySay, what happened to all your friends
What made them so dull and so grey
They got in a way in a sense
'cause they chose to turn her awayBut when you enter her room
And when she opens her dream cocoonYou'll be over the moon
You'll be able to fly
You'll be getting there soon
You'll be high as the sky
You will bend til you break
You can't tell her goodbyeShe's got God in her hands
Got us all in a trance
And when she opens her dream cocoonWe'll be over the moon
We'll be able to fly
We'll be getting there soon
We'll be high as the sky
We will bend til we break
Just don't tell us goodbye
