

Consequence of Love

Gregory Porter

I will go
To the consequence of love
Whatever come what may, you see
The game for me is you I will fight
For the right to be your love
No matter what they say, you see
The game for me is you I begin to hate
Time and distance
'Cause it makes me wait
That's all I seem to do I will go
To the consequence of love
Whatever come what may, you see
The game for me is you I will fight
For the right to be your love
No matter what they say
The game for me is you [Saxophone Solo] I begin to hate
Time and distance
'Cause it makes me wait
That's all I seem to do I'll anticipate
With all my patience
'Cause it makes me wait
Coming home to you I will go
To the consequence of love
Whatever come what may
The game for me is you I will fight
For the right to be your love
No matter what they say
The game for me is you
The game for me is you
The game for me is you
The game for me is love
