Love Zone

Judas Priest

Been awake all night, can't get no sleep
I need a steel blue heart walkin' down the streets
With your razor nails and your painted smile
You're gonna get richer, I gotta get wildAny time you want to Any way you need
Get your love for money there
Satisfaction guaranteedWoh oh, love zone
You know what I mean
Woh oh, love zone
Live that fantasyI'm behind the wheel, throttle open wide
The gas tank's full, do you want to ride?
Driven in the fast lane late at night
I can't keep my eyes off your red tail lightYou know where we're going
I know where we are Set the rear view mirror for
The backseat of the carWoh oh, love zone
You know what I mean
Woh oh, love zone
Live that fantasyIn your leather and chrome you're all the rage
All you want to do is get backstage
You heard all the stories, are they true?
The rock 'n' roll circus is calling youWhen you get there baby
You'll be hypnotized
Never seen nothin' like it no
You won't believe your eyesWoh oh, love zone
You know what I mean
Woh oh, love zone
Live that fantasyWoh oh, love zone
You know what I mean
Woh oh, love zone
Live that fantasyEverybody get in
Everybody get in that love zone
