

Like a Fool

Shaimus

You felt something alone.
You keep to your own.
We'll never know will we dear?
Steps you took from the start,
To be where you are,
But I don't know where you've gone,
And like a fool I look around,
For the answer with my head in my hands. So I have to close my eyes,
To all but my own world because,
The more I find, the more I realize I am,
Just a rebel and a fool. You had fallen down,
Your face in the ground,
And you were all alone on top of a hill,
But we love you still,
Oh you're so far from where you've come,
And like a fool I look around,
For the answer with my head in my hands. So I have to close my eyes,
To all but my own world because,
The more I find, the more I realize I am,
Just a rebel and a fool.
Just a rebel and a fool,
Looking for something good, oh all right. (Guitar Solo) (Intensely Screaming)
Ooh, oh, yeah-ee yeah-ee, YEEEAAAAAHHAHAHAH!
Like a fool I look around,
For the answer with my head in my hands,
So I have to calm my soul. (Slightly Soft)
I close my eyes to all but my own world because,
The more I fiiiiind. (Normal)
I close my eyes! Ooooooh.
To realize...
Dooo, wop bop ba da doo. (Cloooose My eyes)
Da do dum, da dum, da dum, da dum dum
Wop bop ba da doo. (Realiiiiize)
Da do dum, da do duummm-I am
Just a rebel and a fool.
