Shouldn't Have To Wait

Listen
It was just infatuation, yeah
And I know I should've said so, oh
'Cause you gave up your relations, yeah
So that you could have me for your own
Boo, after quite some time
You got restless, babe
Said you wanted more from me
Lemme talk about it
I didn't know what to do
I just turned away
When you look me
In the eyes and say
This is crazy, I shouldn't have to wait
That's what you told me
I shouldn't have to wait for you
I shouldn't have to wait for your love
No, no, no
Baby, save it, I shouldn't have to wait
I shouldn't have to wait for you
I shouldn't have to wait for your love
Uh, couldn't see what I was losing, yeah
When I said I couldn't stay that night
And it must have been confusing, yeah
Can imagine what was on your mind
When you began to cry
Boo, after quite some time
You got restless babe
Said you wanted more from me
And I didn't know what to do
I just looked away
When you turned to me
And you said
You're sick of waiting
This is crazy, I shouldn't have to wait
I shouldn't have to wait for you
I shouldn't have to wait for your love
Baby, save it

I shouldn't have to wait
I shouldn't have to wait for you
I shouldn't have to wait for your love
Ooh, I'm not tryna' be tough
I know what you need
And I know I'm not the one
Baby, trust me, I know I'm not the one
To take good care of you
I know it's gotta be rough, yeah
Said, I know it tears you up inside
Knowing that I can't give you what you need
And I know it's crazy
This is crazy, I shouldn't have to wait
I shouldn't have to wait for you
I shouldn't have to wait for your love
Baby, save it, I shouldn't have to wait
I shouldn't have to wait for you
I shouldn't have to wait for your love
This is crazy, I shouldn't have to wait
I shouldn't have to wait for you
I shouldn't have to wait for your love
Baby, save it, I shouldn't have to wait
I shouldn't have to wait for you
I shouldn't have to wait for your love
I shouldn't have to wait, no, no, no
