

All Those Words

Tim Chaisson

It's been raining in my sleep
Drops of regret " they run so deep
Without You

I shouldn't have pushed you away
Look at this empty bed I've made
Without You

I told you that I wanted to be on my own
I never thought, That I'd wanna
Take back,

All those words I said
Swimming in my head
Baby can you just come back and forget
Forget all those words I said

If I could go back to the start
I'd stop the fool who broke your heart
Ya, that's me

Instead I'd say just what you dreamed
I love you, I need you, you're my everything

It might be " a little too late now
But just incase, I wanna take back
