Top Falls Down

Tonic

He lays down in silence, killin' communication
Any pride is pointless in these situations
Says she's gonna find a rider
'Cause she can't love a radio flier
Ooh, you never give love
So the top falls down
Spread your wings, fly away
My love
She said she's gotta have her freedom
From the one who denies her
From the builder of strong fences
From the one who kills his senses
When you're sleeping under water
Breathin' has no purpose
She said she's looking for a rider
'Cause she can't love a radio flier
Ooh, you never give love
So the top falls down
Spread your wings, fly away
My love
Not old to look into the sun
To see the shame in everyone
So back I stand from want so near
To be controlled by what I fear
Ooh, you never give love
So the top falls down
Spread your wings, fly away
My love, bye bye
