I Love Death

Lodger

Waking ten times to take a piss
You can taste the cancer in my morning kiss
Scratch the rash on my back it's perfect bliss
You want a life companion and you're getting this

Man, can get a few dimes
And man can get it a few times
Man, can get a few dimes
And man can get it a few times

You have to look away of every meal
Inconvenient but that's the deal
This it what, we become when nothing's real
Mental wounds that never heal

Man, can get a few dimes
And man can get it a few times
Man, can get a few dimes
And man can get it a few times

Man, can get a few dimes
And man can get it a few times
Man, can get a few dimes
And man can get it a few times
