

Unknown Land

Graceful Closure

Looking for an ocean to discover
Any secrets here to be uncovered
There's a fire inside
And it's burning so bright
Gotta give up the fight
If I wanna survive

[:: CHORUS ::]
All I wanna know
Is where to lead the soul
Got so far to go
Feels like a shipwreck
Shored on an unknown land

Let your anchor hold
Hold me through the storm
And drown my fear in hope
'Feels like a shipwreck
Shored on on an unknown land

I want to move beyond my own illusions
To the place my mind defeats confusion
All I hear is the noise
Swelling into the storm
Will the chaos destroy
Or call me out of the void

[:: BRIDGE ::]
Out on the edge now
To find out
Where I am
