Belvedere

searched all this time for unparalleled beings and i'm not believing what i'm seeing it's imperfection without knowing the deficiency is showing everybody's wondering what i'm looking for i know what else can you ask for a perfect place what more can you ask of a perfect face i know i know there's something wrong searched everywhere for unmuddled reasons but this place relies on a constant season that's all i thought of while i was leaving it's deficiency was showing
wat more can you ask of a perfect face
this feeling inside won't hurt no more utopian land won't be beside me things that were said won't hurt anymore it's part of a plan i'm not feeling so bad while i'm turned the other way
things that were said won't hurt no more it's part of a plan i'm not feeling so bad
