

SHE'S PRETTY, SHE LIES

Cheyenne Jackson

Verse 1:

She's too much, I just can't take it
Light's too bright, I might not make it
She's pretty, she lies
She can't know their hearts are breaking
She don't know the mess she's making
She's pretty, she lies
She wonders, the world I'm doing
Everything I built, I'm losing
She's pretty, she lies

Pre-Chorus:
She walks in like Cleopatra
She's the queen and you can't match her
I know you wonder why I care
I know the air is thin out there
It must be hard to catch your breath
I know they wonder why I stay
They ? each day

Chorus:
I'm a fool in love and I
Can't help myself
I can't get enough of your love
'And you're all that I need
It's a drug to me' (x2)

Verse 2:
She told me that she's not leaving
Something's wrong, I know, I feel it
She's pretty, she lies
Can't explain why I'm still waiting
Just a game I'm loving playing
She's pretty, she lies
Everyone says, "Don't believe her"
Nothing matters when you need her

She's pretty, she lies
Pre-Chorus & Chorus
I know you wonder why I care
I know the air is thin out there
'Chorus' (x2, but mixed up)
