

All the While

Bryan Eggers

Sometimes I like to get quiet
To escape the subtle riot
That whispers in my soul
Sometimes I hear the music playing
And the words that you are saying
The comfort makes me whole

Lord you make me smile
Lord you make me smile

All the while that I had turned away
Faithfully you stayed
All the while you waited patiently
Reminding me of the promises you made
I've missed the mark I've traveled the dark road
And followed it for miles
But you were there
All the while

Sometimes my life can seem crazy
And my vision goes hazy
It makes me want to hide
But I know I've got to keep climbing
As I feel your spirit rising
I know you are my guide
