Wounded

Shane & Shane

Why since You've wound my heart
Don't you heal it? Why don't You heal?
And why since You've stolen my heart
Do You leave it so? Oh, this heart of stoneWhy don't You carry away my heart?
You have stolen and left here broken
Why don't You carry away my heart already taken?
AwakenThe dawning of a new heart
Where stone begins to bleed
For the arrow of God that runs through me
Leaves me in need, here in needWhy don't You carry away my heart?
You have stolen and left here broken
Why don't You carry away my heart already taken?
AwakenHow long? How long? How long?
And how long? How long? How long?Why don't You carry away my heart?
You have stolen and left here broken
Why don't You carry away my heart already taken?
AwakenWhy don't You carry away my heart?
You have stolen and left here broken
Why don't You carry away my heart already taken?
Awaken at all
