

Pussy and Money

The Dictators

Pussy and money You wake up in the morning
Totally confused
Can't get a date
But you're getting screwed You're searching for a reason
A way to carry on
When everything is broken
And everything is wrong So you tried to save the whales
You found a tree to kiss
You gave a crippled child
His dying wish You're waiting for an answer
A message from above
You've always been a sucker
Another fool in love What's it all about?
Pussy and money
I ain't tryin' to be cute
I ain't tryin' to be funny
Everybody lies about
Pussy and money It's always gonna be that way
It's always gonna be that way You see a girl
You start talkin'
She sees your car
She starts walkin' Sweet success
Just take it
If you're sincere
You can fake it What's it all about?
Pussy and money
I ain't tryin' to be cute
I ain't tryin' to be funny
Everybody cries about
Pussy and money It's always gonna be that way
It's always gonna be that way You wanna be the big dog
Down on the street
But if you spill a drop of blood
The shark's gotta eat A million stars
Out of reach
A billion grains of sand
On the beach So you pray every night
When the sun goes down
'Cause there are only two things

That make the world go roundWhat's it all about?

Pussy and money

I ain't tryin' to be cute

I ain't tryin' to be funny

Everybody lies about

Pussy and money

Everybody cries about

Pussy and money

Everybody shout it out

Pussy and moneyIt's always gonna be that way

It's always gonna be that way
