

Twilight at Carbon Lake

Deerhunter

Go to the shore
And pray for the sea
Go towards the mirror
And pray that you'll see
Someone else
Downtown, go downtownGo to the waves of grain
In the center of the state
Go away
Go to a parking lot
Sit on the ground and cry
You'll never know whyStart overGo to the ocean on a ship
Wave goodbye to the waves
And the frozen shit
That was in your heart
So long
