

It's True Love (ft. Greta Salpeter)

Forgive Durden

It seems to me like every star agreed to meet
Right over our heads tonight to fix there bright. The light collects in your eyes, turns and reflects, jumps into mine.
I'm a slave to the sign. My hands shake, our minds race from the thought of love.
Yet we curb our speech because words are not enough
To wedge this instant, burn this moment into our memory.
Let go, take my hand and trust in me.
Anhura, can't you see, that we were meant to be? It's true love, it's true love
It's true love, it's true love I admit I would guess your touch could Fill me with such thoughts to marry you, have your babies too.
Is it too good to be true? I can't let her learn about my past.
If she found out where I came from, she'd turn so fast.
And not look back, I can't go back, I just won't go back! I can't slow down, I'm scared I'm falling too fast.
Adakias can't you see that I'm your first kiss? We were meant to be! Don't you ever feel like you've been destined for something bigger than your skin? Don't you ever feel like you've been destined for something bigger than your skin? It's true love, it's true love
It's true love, it's true love
It's true love, it's true love
It's true love, it's true love Love was everywhere. You could taste it in the air.
The couple was eager to trade vows, to float away, and settle down.
But first, Adakias had to meet Anhura's father,
His Majesty, the one and only, His Royal Highness.
The King.
He had to kiss his jeweled fist and bow to the crown,
Kneeling on the ground.
He would propound to become her prince.
