The Victim?

Fallen Horizon

If I could turn back time,
I'll rip the smile right off your face.
Now tell me what you see I'm right here feeding on your hate.
I won't forget, forget you you fucking bitch.
You brought this on yourself.
Now just walk and spit on my grave.I just want you to feel like I do, I feel.
I just want you to feel like I do, I feel.
Need you to take my hand show me how to pray.
Against the wall I stand.
The red line is slipping away.Time won't heal a shit.
You marked a scar I wont forget.
Black listed from my life.
Can't see you behind this wall.
Don't you ever speak, speak my name again.
Won't let you leave my thoughts.
I'll invite you in to feel.I just want you to feel like I do, I feel.
I just want you to feel like I do, I feel.Need you to take my hand show me how to pray.
Against the wall I stand.
The red line is slipping away.Just want to close my eyes,
let it all go away.
Imprisoned by your act.
Left me to die alone.The best way to keep you for my own.
Was to take your life away from you.The best way to keep you for my own.
Was to take your life away from you.
