Sometimes

A Rocket To The Moon

You're standing all alone
Short of breath and tired eyes
You're shaking to the bone
Over dressed and nowhere else to go
Oh girl, I need to know
Let's get you from the cold
I'll help with your overcoat
I'll never let you go
I need you more than I could ever show you
Tell me now because I need to know
Everybody needs somebody sometimes
Everybody needs somebody on their mind
So tell me what you want, girl
I'll be there to hold you
'Cause everybody needs somebody sometimes
Who are you?
I never heard so many lies
So tell the truth
The only thing I ever wanted for you
Was to show you I know you
So now you see
I finally found a part of me that you don't need
But needing isn't everything when you want love
And you want us, you need me
Everybody needs somebody sometimes
Everybody needs somebody on their mind
So tell me what you want, girl
I'll be there to hold you
'Cause everybody needs somebody sometimes
So now you see
I finally found a part of me that you don't need
But needing isn't everything, you want love
You want us, you need me, you need me
Everybody needs somebody sometimes
Everybody needs somebody on their mind
So tell me what you want, girl
I'll be there to hold you
'Cause everybody needs somebody sometimes
Everybody needs somebody sometimes

Everybody needs somebody on their mind
So tell me what you want, girl
I'll be there to hold you
'Cause everybody needs somebody sometimes
